ACT #2024-261

Don A. Armstrong, ACTA

Shelby County Property Tax Commissioner

Tax Sale 40-10-28

- ▶ (a) (1) The excess arising from the sale of any real estate remaining after paying the amount of the decree of sale, including costs and expenses subsequently accruing, shall be paid over to a person or entity who has redeemed property as authorized in Section 40-10-120 or any other provisions of Alabama law authorizing redemption from a tax sale, provided proof that the person or entity requesting payment of the excess has properly redeemed the property is presented to the county commission within three years after the tax sale has occurred. The county commission may retain any interest earned on those funds. Until and unless the property is redeemed, the excess funds from the tax sale shall be held in a separate account in the county treasury during the three-year period. If at the end of the three-year period there has been no proper request for the excess funds, those funds and any interest earned on those funds shall be deposited to the credit of the general fund of the county and shall thereafter be treated as part of the general fund of the county.

- ▶ (2) The Department of Revenue shall adopt rules authorizing the county commission to issue a voucher in the amount of the excess bid to a person or entity has paid all other costs of redemption as required in this subsection. The person or entity redeeming property may present the voucher to the judge of probate in lieu of the amount equal to the excess bid to complete the redemption process. The rules adopted by the department shall include forms to be utilized for issuing such vouchers.
- ▶ (b) At any time after three years but no later than 10 years after a tax sale that occurred in calendar year 2016 or later, or at any time after three years but no later than 11 years after a tax sale that occurred in calendar year 2015, or at any time after three years but no later than 12 years after a tax sale that occurred in calendar year 2014, the excess funds arising from the sale shall be paid to any of the following:

- ▶ (1) To any person or entity entitled to redeem under Section 40-10-83, or any other provisions of law authorizing redemption from the tax sale, upon proof of a circuit court order granting redemption to the person or entity.
- ▶ (2) To the owner of the land at the time of the tax sale or a subsequent owner, upon proof provided to the tax collector or other official performing those duties that the land has been redeemed by negotiated agreement from the purchaser at the tax sale or the purchaser's successor in interest. Proof of negotiated redemption agreement shall include the following:
 - ▶ a. A copy of a properly recorded deed or conveyance to the redeeming party executed by the party from whom redemption was made.
 - ▶ b. If the redeeming party was not the owner of the land at the time of the tax sale, a copy of a properly recorded deed or conveyance from the owner at the time of the tax sale to the subsequent owner.
 - ▶ c. If the party from whom redemption was made is a successor in interest of the tax sale purchaser, a copy of a properly recorded deed or conveyance from the tax sale purchaser to the successor in interest.

- ▶ (3) To the owner of the land at the time of the tax sale or a subsequent owner with a properly recorded deed or conveyance without a redemption if the owner or subsequent owner executes a release and waiver releasing any right to redeem the property and waiving any and all interest in the property which shall be recorded with the judge of probate.
- ▶ (c) Upon receipt of proof of redemption or proof of release and waiver as required in subsection (b), the county commission shall order the payment of the excess funds as provided therein and retain any interest earned on those funds, If proof of redemption or proof of release and waiver is not received within 10 years after the tax sale that occurred in calendar year 2016 or later, within 11 years after a tax sale that occurred in calendar year 2015, or within 12 years after a tax sale that occurred in calendar year 2014, the excess funds and any interest earned on the funds shall become the property of the county.
- ▶ (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the process for calculation, distribution, .and retention of any excess funds resulting from the sale of real estate. for taxes, including any interest earned on the funds, shall be governed by this section and shall apply regardless of when the tax sale occurred. Any prior actions taken regarding excess funds and any interest earned on the funds which were made in good faith reliance pursuant to this section prior to July 2, 2017, are ratified, validated, and affirmed."

Shelby County Property Tax Commissioner

Tax Lien Auction & Sale 40-10-197

- ▶ (a) (1) At any time not less than four years after the tax lien auction or the tax official's sale of a tax lien but not more than 10 years after the auction or sale, if the tax lien has not been redeemed, a holder of all of the sold, unexpired, outstanding tax lien certificates for a parcel of property may bring in the circuit court of the county in which the property is located an action to foreclose the right to redeem and to quiet title to the property in the name of the holder of the tax lien certificate. If any applicable law or court order prohibits bringing an action to foreclose the right to redeem and to quiet title to the property, the limitation provided in this section shall be extended 12 months following the termination of the prohibition.
- ▶ (2) For purposes of this section, a tax lien certificate shall be considered outstanding if it is owned by the original holder of the tax lien certificate or his or her successor in interest.
- ▶ (b) If there are any unsold tax liens, the holder must pay all due and owing taxes, interest, penalties, fees, and costs prior to filing an action under this section.
- ▶ (c) (1) At least 30 days before filing a tax lien foreclosure action under this article, but not more than 180 days before the action is commenced, the holder of the tax lien certificates shall send notice of intent to file the foreclosure action by certified mail or by United States mail, First Class, postage ore-paid, to all of the following:
 - ▶ a. The property owner or owners of record, according to the property tax records of the county in which the property is located, at the owner's address shown in the records and at the street address of the property if different.

- ▶ b. All holders of outstanding mortgages, judgment liens, or other liens on the property as recorded in the probate office of the county in which the property is located.
- ▶ c. The tax collecting official of the county in which the property is located.
- ▶ d. Any other person who may reasonably be believed to have an interest in the property, including, but not limited to, any of the following:
 - ▶ 1. A person whose name appears on the face of a recorded deed, mortgage, or other relevant instrument.
 - ▶ 2. A person who paid taxes on the property during the period that it has been owned by the property owner of record.
 - ▶ 3. A person who appears to be the heir of the property owner of record, as shown by probate court records.
 - ▶ 4. The registered agent and all persons appearing to have an ownership interest in the entity as recorded on the records of the probate court or the Secretary of State, or both, if the property is owned by a business entity.
- ▶ (2) The holder of the tax lien certificates shall make an affidavit setting forth the names of the persons, entities, and organizations that were sent notice pursuant to subdivision (1) and how these persons were identified, including, but not limited to, the records searched. This affidavit must be filed in the subsequent action.
- ▶ (3) The notice shall include the property owner's name, the date of mailing, the uniform parcel number, the legal description and street address, if any, of the property, and the name and address of the holder of the tax lien certificate. If the holder fails to send the notice required by this subsection, the court shall dismiss any tax lien foreclosure action filed under this article. The notice shall also include a statement or words substantially to the same effect, as follows:

- ▶ "Notice is hereby given that the holder of these tax liens proposes to file a tax lien foreclosure action as soon as 30, but not later than 180; days following the date this notice is mailed. Once this action is served, anyone who is named as a defendant has 30 days to file an answer, or a default judgment may be entered against that person. Any person with a right to redeem the property may do so at anytime prior to the entry of final judgment in the proposed action, either by payment to the tax collecting official as provided by law before an action is commenced, or by filing a timely answer or motion in the court after an action has been commenced. A judgment quieting title may cause a person with an interest in or claim on the property to lose their interest or claim. Any person claiming an interest in the property may appear in the action. Any person who is entitled to redeem may request that the property be sold at public auction. IN SUMMARY, IF YOU DO NOT WANT TO LOSE ANY INTEREST OR EQUITY, OR BOTH, YOU MAY HAVE IN THE PROPERTY, ONCE THE TAX LIEN FORECLOSURE ACTION BEGINS, YOU MUST TAKE ALL REQUIRED MEASURES TO APPEAR IN AND RESPOND TO THE FORECLOSURE ACTION."
- ▶ (d) (1) An action shall be commenced by filing a complaint in compliance with Section 6-6-561. Additionally, the complaint shall be accompanied by the following statement or words substantially to the same effect:
- ▶ "A person with a right to redeem the property may do so at any time Prior to the entry of final judgment in this action by filing a timely answer or motion in the court. A judgment quieting title may cause a person with an interest in or claim on the property to lose their interest or claim. Any person claiming an interest in the property may appear in this action. Any person who is entitled to redeem may request that the property be sold at public auction. IN SUMMARY, IF YOU DO NOT WANT TO LOSE ANY INTEREST OR EQUITY, OR BOTH, YOU MAY HAVE IN THE PROPERTY, YOU MUST TAKE ALL REQUIRED MEASURES TO APPEAR IN AND RESPOND TO THIS TAX LIEN FORECLOSURE ACTION."

The holder shall not be required to plead or prove possession of the property. The holder shall name as parties defendant to the tax lien foreclosure action all persons entitled to redeem under this article. Upon filing the tax lien foreclosure action, the holder shall record a notice as provided by Section 35-4-131. Service of the complaint shall be made in accordance with Section 6-6-563. Notice shall also be published as provided by Section 6-6-564. An answer must be filed within 30 days following the date of service, as provided by section 6-6-565.

- ▶ (2) On the filing of a complaint, should it appear that any of the defendants is a minor or incapacitated or should the identity of some, or all, of the defendants be unknown, the court shall promptly appoint a guardian ad litem to represent and defend the interest of the minor or incapacitated defendant, or unknown party in the Proceeding.
- ▶ (3) If the taxes have been paid by a person authorized to pay the taxes for any year in the intervening period between the first unredeemed lien and the filing of the action, the holder must also pay into court the amount of taxes that were paid, plus the interest on those taxes at the rate of interest specified in the oldest unredeemed tax lien certificate. If the property is foreclosed or sold through auction, this amount shall be distributed to the person who paid the taxes.
- ▶ (e)(1) In a tax lien foreclosure action, if the court finds that: (i) the tax lien auction or sale is valid (ii), proper notice has been sent; (iii), the holder is the holder of all of the sold, unexpired, outstanding tax certificates on the property; (iv), the tax liens have not been redeemed; and (v) no person has demanded that the property be sold by public auction under this section, the court shall enter judgment foreclosing the right of the defendant or defendants to redeem, shall vest good and marketable fee simple title in the holder, free of encumbrances, claims, and liens except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), and shall direct the circuit clerk to execute and deliver to the party in whose favor judgment is entered a deed conveying the property described in the tax lien certificates.
- ▶ (2)a. In no event may judgment be granted in a tax lien foreclosure action prior to the expiration of 90 days after it is filed, unless all persons possessing an ownership interest in the property have filed an answer explicitly waiving any defense to the action, and all persons who are entitled to demand a sale of the parcel of property at public auction have filed an answer explicitly waiving their right to demand a sale at public auction.

- ▶ b. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure to the contrary, an application for default judgment must be filed with the court and served on all parties who have appeared in the action as provided in the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure and on any party who has not appeared in the action in accordance with Section 6-6-563. The holder of the tax lien certificates must submit an affidavit of service to the court.
- ▶ c. Judgment may not be granted prior to 30 days after the service of the application for default judgment or 90 days after the filing of the action, whichever is later. The application for default judgment must specifically and prominently state the expected date on which judgment on the application may be entered and that any person seeking to protect an ownership or equity interest in the property must take all required measures to appear in and respond to the tax lien foreclosure action.
- ▶ (3) After entry of judgment, a party whose rights to redeem the tax liens have been foreclosed has no further legal or equitable right, title, or interest in the property subject to the right of appeal and stay of execution as in other civil actions.

- ▶ (f) The foreclosure of the right to-redeem does not extinguish any easement or right-of-way on or appurtenant to the property or rights of any public utility or governmental entity in the property, deed restrictions or covenants, or plat restrictions or conditions. Any other liens shall be extinguished according to their priority as provided by law.
- ▶ (g)(1) The clerks deed executed in accordance with subsection (e) shall include all of the following information:
 - ▶ a. The date of the judgment.
 - ▶ b. The number and style of the case.
 - ▶ c. The name of the plaintiff, who shall be seated as the grantee.
 - ▶ d. The legal description of the property.
 - ▶ e. The uniform parcel number of the property.
 - ▶ f. The date of the conveyance.
- ▶ (2) The original deed shall be delivered to the plaintiff for recording in the probate records in the county in which the property is located.
- ▶ (h) Any person who is entitled to redeem under this article may redeem at any time before judgment is entered, notwithstanding that. an action under this section has been commenced, by paying into the circuit court the redemption amount that would have been paid to the tax collecting official under Section 40-10-193 or all sold, unexpired, outstanding tax lien certificates held by the holder, plus the amount of any other taxes that were paid pursuant to this section. If the person who redeems has been served in the action, or if the person became an owner after the action was commenced and redeems after a notice is recorded pursuant to subsection (d), the court shall also enter an order requiring the repayment of reasonable costs and reasonable attorney fees actually incurred in the action as established by the law and evidence, including, but not limited to, the filing fee. An award of costs and fees under this section shall be entered as a judgment against the redeemer, which may be enforced in the same manner as other judgments.

- ▶ (i) (1) a. Any person entitled to redeem, without redeeming, may respond to the action by demanding that the parcel of property be sold. at public auction. By demanding that the parcel of property be sold at public auction, the person concedes that the court may enter judgment foreclosing the right to redeem and vest good and marketable fee simple title in favor of the highest bidder.
- ▶ b. A demand for auction may be made at any time before judgment is entered and may be made in the alternative, however no auction shall occur before any other defense raised by any other party defendant has been waived or adjudicated. The demand for auction must be served on all parties as provided in the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure for pleadings subsequent to the original complaint. Any other party to the action, except for the holder of the tax lien certificates, may object to the demand within 30 days following service. A holder of the tax lien certificates receiving the demand shall file an accounting of the reasonable costs and attorney fees incurred in the action within 30 days.
- ▶ (2) If the court determines that the request for auction of the parcel of property is made by a proper person and is due to be granted, the court shall also determine the reasonable costs and attorney fees actually incurred by the holder of the tax lien certificates in the action in accordance with this section, plus the cost of the auction. It shall order a suitable commissioner co conduct the auction no later than 180 days from the dace of the order.
- ▶ (3) The auction of the parcel of property shall be conducted either on the premises of or within the courthouse or courthouse annex of the county, and awarded to the highest bidder for cash between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.
- ▶ (4) Notice of the auction shall be given for at lease three successive weeks as provided by Section 6-8-60 and by posting a notice in the courthouse. The notice shall specify the property and shall state the location, time, and manner of the sale.

- ▶ (5) The minimum bid at the sale shall be set by the court as the amount required to redeem all outstanding tax lien certificates under Section 40-10-193, plus any back taxes paid prior to bringing the action and the costs and fees ordered by the court. The holder of the tax lien certificates shall automatically be deemed to bid the minimum amount. If the holder is the highest bidder, he or she shall receive a credit toward the purchase price equal to the minimum bid.
- ▶ (6) The suitable commissioner shall report the results of the auction to the court for confirmation and shall deposit the proceeds of the auction, if any, with the clerk of court. The court shall enter judgment foreclosing the right of the defendant or defendants to redeem and shall vest good and marketable fee simple title to the highest bidder. The court shall direct the circuit clerk to execute and deliver a deed as described in this section to the highest bidder, except that, if no bid other than the minimum bid is received, the holder shall pay the cost of the auction prior to receiving the deed.
- ▶ (7) The proceeds of the auction shall be applied first to the cost of the auction, and then distributed to the holder of the tax lien certificates in an amount equal to the amount required to redeem, plus any due and owing taxes, interest penalties, fees, and costs that were paid by him or her prior to filing the action, plus the reasonable costs and fees actually incurred in the action as previously determined by the court. Any surplus shall then be distributed to the owner or owners of the property or their heirs or other successors in interest, or to another proper person, as determined by the court. The provisions of Alabama law applicable to unclaimed property held by the state shall apply.
